

Dear Parents and Carers

It is (relatively) quiet in school with Year 4 away on residential. They are enjoying themselves at Lineham Farm and have been climbing, orienteering, doing night walks, eating heartily and playing in the games room. We have enjoyed their updates and look forward to hearing more about their trip away.

Year 5 were visited again yesterday by the Vacuum Cleaner Project. Since they last came in (and Y4 and Y5 dismantled the vacuum cleaners) actors have been working on the materials and have shared some of their work with Y5 and worked together with them to create more dramatic ideas.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Pancake Sale after school on Shrove Tuesday. Thanks also to FOSOPS for organising this celebration and fundraiser.

The majority of Year 6 came to the first pizza club after school on Monday for a fun mix of confidence building maths, English and – of course – pizza. All Y6 are welcome, don't worry if you lost your slip you can come on Monday just bring a note from home or ask a parent/carer to tell us you're coming. Well done to the children who have already completed the homework!

I hope you have a good weekend.

There were no SuperStar certificates this week as we had a special assembly to celebrate homework this morning instead. What a lovely range of projects and ideas. Well done to everyone completing the important everyday homework of reading, practising spellings, Maths Passport targets and to everyone who has already tried out Times Tables Superstarz!
